

STUDENT MISCONDUCT PROCEDURES GUIDE

1. Policy Statement

Hanson Private Career College (hereinafter ‘Hanson’) is committed to promoting responsibility to the community by setting a model of socially acceptable behaviour throughout its campuses. This document does not alter the Student’s Rights and Responsibilities, Student Complaints Policy, and Hanson’s Code of Conduct. To ensure consistently, the equitable treatment of all students under the Code of Conduct, the procedures related to behavioural misconduct by a student is outlined in this document. The adoption of these procedures is intended to act as a deterrent to student misconduct as well as fairly advise the student of the consequences of his/her actions. The college has the right to enforce compliance with such prescribed standards through appropriate sanctions. At the same time, the student is given certain rights concerning notice, a right to be heard, and a right of appeal.

The Student Misconduct Procedures Guide relates solely to complaints relating to student misconduct, therefore the Respondent in the complaint filed under this document must be a student. Under this document, Complainants can be any individual who is not a student, such as staff, faculty, and visitors. For procedures related to complaints made by students (i.e. the Complainant is a student), regardless of who is the Respondent, please refer to the Student Complaints policy.

2. A General Statement: Students’ Responsibilities and Hanson’s Rights

Students have a fundamental responsibility to obey the general law of the land while they are within the confines of the Hanson’s buildings or on Hanson’s grounds and when they are working in a placement situation or any other situations where the students are under the ultimate supervision of Hanson. The general law of the land includes the Criminal Code of Canada and by-laws of municipalities in which Hanson conducts classes, placements, or other approved activities. Students are expected to be familiar with and comply with the general law of the land.

Hanson has the right to make regulations that are supplementary to the general law of the land, and sanctions imposed by Hanson are in addition to any other sanctions, which may be imposed by the law. Examples would be regulations forbidding the possession of firearms and other weapons on Hanson’s property, uttering threats, and harassment, creating disturbances and disruptions, possession and consumption of alcohol and other drugs on Hanson’s property, smoking in prohibited areas, and failing to maintain a safe, healthy learning environment.

The Student Rights and Responsibilities policy automatically binds all students upon enrolment and clearly outlines the faculty members’ responsibility to maintain a classroom environment that is conducive to learning. Each student, upon admission to Hanson, contractually agrees to be governed by the rules and regulations of Hanson, which among other things includes this document. The document may be amended from time to time, and any such amendments shall be binding on all students.

- 6.2. Once a student has completed their suspension or expulsion period and they wish to re-enroll at Hanson the student must:
 - Submit in writing a request for re-admission to the Manager of Records and Registration at least two (2) months prior to the intended re-enrolment date.
 - Demonstrate in writing, with documented evidence, that all of the conditions of their suspension/expulsion have been satisfied.

 - 6.3.2. If the college is satisfied, the student must:

- 6.3.2.1. Gain admission into the program through the regular application process (the student should note that requesting readmission two (2) months prior to the intended re-enrolment date does not guarantee admission).

The Directors and the student will be given copies of the Behavioural Contract, signed all present.
